

FIRST YEAR AGENDA:
THE TEN CONGREGATIONAL CONVERSATIONS
Re-Envisioning Steering Committee, Revised to March 27, 2011

Changing the culture of organizations, groups, and institutions – and even societies – is about changing the conversation...

For congregations that seek [authentic spiritual and institutional renewal], there are perhaps ten important conversations that they need to initiate, deepen, and sustain in their ongoing life.

~ Anthony B. Robinson

Introduction to the Re-envisioning Process and One – “It’s Not About You”
Sunday, May 23, 2010 Congregational Meeting after church

Two – “And Yet, It is About You”
Sunday, July 25, Town Hall Meeting after church

Three – “A New Heart”
Sunday, September 19, Town Hall Meeting after church

Four – “Why Are We Here” and Five – “Write the Vision”
Friday evening-Saturday evening, October 15-16
Re-envisioning Retreat at the church

Progress Report: Discussion of Emerging OCC Purpose & Vision
Sunday, December 12, Congregational Conversation after church

Six – “Who Shall Lead Them? and Seven – “Let’s Get (Less) Organized”
Sunday, February 6, Town Hall Meeting after church

Eight – “The Church and the Public Square”
Sunday, March 27, Town Hall Meeting after church

Nine – “Death and Resurrection”
Sunday, April 17, Town Hall Meeting after church

Ten – “Where Do We Go From Here?”
Sunday, May 22, Congregational Meeting after church

Sabine Hathaway, Ann Long, David Milnes, Susan Russell, Roger Samuelson, Kurt Sunderbruch (Chair), Bob Winbigler, Frank Baldwin (Ex Officio)